

Baring-Gould Folk Weekend 2018: Working Programme

Number	Event	Time	Venue	Price
Friday
1	Welcome Concert A rousing start to the weekend featuring festival artists and members of the Wren team	7.00 – 9.00pm	Charter Hall	£8
2	Friday Folk Club A chance for you to perform alongside festival artists, request a performance spot on arrival	9.00 – 11.00pm	Church Hall	Collection
Saturday
3	Festival Coffee Morning with Family Music Workshop Relax into the weekend with a music workshop and coffee morning. Family members of all ages welcome to join in, instruments provided	10.00 – 12.00pm	Church Hall	Collection
4	Festival Orchestra Rehearsal 1 of 2 Learn tunes specially chosen by guest soloist Matt Quinn. Orchestra led by Becki Driscoll	10.00 – 12.00pm	Charter Hall	£6
5	Festival Choir Rehearsal 1 of 2 Learn songs from the returning choir leader Polly Bolton	10.00 – 12.00pm	Ebenezer Hall	£6
6	Folk Café: Lunch available with supported music workshop Musicians welcome to join in ensemble playing led by David Faulkner. Light lunch is available	12.00 – 2.00pm	Charter Hall	Collection
7	Music Session Malcolm Woods takes the lead at the ever popular music session	12.00 – 2.00pm	The Fountain Inn	Collection
8	Lunchtime Concert A chance to hear fiddle player Becki Driscoll perform solo, followed by Wren group MenSing, led by Paul Wilson	1.30 – 2.30pm	Church Hall	£4
9	Drumming Workshop Come and try Wren's brand of English street percussion in a workshop led by Jon Dyer, drums provided	1.30 – 2.30pm	Ebenezer Hall	£4
10	Dance workshop Festival artists Banter guide you through some principles of ceilidh dancing	3.00 – 4.30pm	Charter Hall	£4
11	Baring-Gould Concert Martin & Shan Graebe, followed by excerpts from Wren's production 'Gothic Dartmoor' with Jon Dyer, Hannah Cumming, Marilyn Tucker & Paul Wilson	3.00 – 4.30pm	Church Hall	£6
12	An Hour With: Becki Driscoll Becki will talk and play you through her busking adventures, describing how she found and created repertoire	3.00 – 4.00pm	Ebenezer Hall	£4
13	An Hour With: David Faulkner David will talk and play you through his fascination with bagpipes	4.00 – 5.00pm	Ebenezer Hall	£4
14	Harvest Supper: Concert with Dinner Arrive to a starter and first half of a concert. Main course is served in the interval, then the second half. Finish with a homemade sweet.	5.00 – 8.00pm	Charter Hall	£15 (£10 with w/end ticket)
15	Folk Singers Club A chance to share the floor with festival artists (request your spot as you arrive). Interval features the Folk Weekend Quiz	8.00 – 11.00pm	Church Hall	Collection
16	Festival ceilidh: Banter This dynamic electro-folk band will have you dancing into the night	8.30 – 11.00pm	Charter Hall	£8

Please note, all events may be subject to change

Baring-Gould Folk Weekend 2018: Working Programme

Sunday	See morris team Newton Bushel around the town.
17	Festival Orchestra Rehearsal: 2 of 2 Second rehearsal preparing for performance at the farewell concert	10.00 – 12.00pm	Charter Hall	£6
18	Festival Choir Rehearsal: 2 of 2 Second rehearsal preparing for performance at the farewell concert	10.00 – 12.00pm	Church Hall	£6
19	Town Walk Marilyn Tucker leads a short walking tour of Okehampton, pointing out some historic hidden gems	10.30 – 11.30pm	Ebenezer Hall	FREE
20	An Hour With: Martin & Shan Graebe Find out about the folk songs collected by Baring-Gould and more from the co-creators of Wren's Baring-Gould project	11.00 – 12.00pm	Ebenezer Hall	£4
21	Folk Club - with lunch A gentle singing and playing session, with lunch available	12.00pm – 1.30pm	Church Hall	Collection
22	Music Session Malcolm Woods takes the lead for the second day of the ever popular music session	12.00 – 2.00pm	The Fountain Inn	Collection
23	Lunchtime Concert: Folk of the Future Phil Beer (Festival Patron) heads a concert with Wren youth groups, and Fiddlin' Folk from Somerset.	12.30 – 2.30pm	Charter Hall	£6
24	Concert: Trev Invites... Wren stalwart Trev Munkenbeck curates a special concert of local singers you may not otherwise hear.	1.30 – 3.00pm	Church Hall	£4
25	Conker Heats Bill Murray takes charge as all ages battle it out for the coveted conker trophy, a.k.a. The Notcher!	2.30 – 3.00pm	Red Lion Yard	FREE
26	Afternoon Ceilidh David Faulkner welcomes you to join the ceilidh band, for a fabulous frenetic family-friendly folk dance. Featuring the conkers final.	3.00 – 5.00pm	Charter Hall	£4
27	Sussex Songs Concert A special production from Matt Quinn & Paul Wilson, concert opened by Georgia Lewis.	3.00 – 4.30pm	Church Hall	£6
28	Tea Time Tunes A chance to play more tunes under the supportive lead of Lauren Ward	5.00 – 6.30pm	Charter Hall	Collection
29	Stew and Shanties Kevin Sessions hosts while hot stew is available	5.00 – 6.30pm	Church Hall	Collection
30	An Hour With: Jon Dyer and Hannah Cumming Jon and Hannah answer your questions in a talk about their journey as folk musicians	5.30 – 6.30pm	Ebenezer Hall	£4
31	Farewell Concert A good bye from festival artists, until our special 20 th Anniversary Celebrations next year.	7.00 – 9.30pm	Charter Hall	£8
32	Farewell Folk Club A final chance to say our musical goodbyes!	9.00 – 10.30pm	Church Hall	Collection

wren
a world where every voice is heard

Please note, all events may be subject to change